Help Video - Testing a Video Bridge Connection

Event hosts and presenters. You are required to test your system at least 48 hours before the event start time with the same devices and network you plan to use during the event. In this video, you'll learn how to test your microphone, camera source, and audio output.